EDITORIAL

Firstly I'd like to thank-you for picking up MAGAZINE the new concept in night-time leisure activity.

It is our intention to present pertinent issues of our age, in a lively, informative and fun way.

Where necessary guest contributors will share their experiences and expertise thus adding to our understanding of a host of subjects that shape our daily lives.

I look forward to engaging with you all as we look to the future, informed, educated and entertained.

Best wishes
